I understand that the specified instructor utilizes a course blog (website), social media, or other publicly accessible communication tool. The purpose of using one or all of those tools is to provide students with opportunities to: share learning experiences, reflect on learning experiences, learn best practices of information management and responsible digital citizenship, learn to use common web publishing and social media tools and develop a body of work that can be added to a professional electronic portfolio. Additionally, I understand that the specified instructor may discuss and promote course related activities on various blogs (website), social media, or other publicly accessible communication tools.

I understand that my enrollment in this class and any contributions by me or the specified instructor to a course blog (website), social media, or other publicly accessible communication tools constitute education records that are protected from disclosure to third parties by Brevard College and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

By signing below, I authorize the specified instructor to share my education record pertaining to the specified course on a course blog (website), social media, or other publicly accessible communication tool.

I acknowledge that this release is valid unless revoked by notifying the Office of the Registrar in writing.
